Re: United States v. Roger Thomas Clark, S2 15 Cr. 866 (WHP)

Dear Judge Pauley:

After conferring with Your Honor's Chambers, the Government respectfully submits this letter, with consent of the defense, to request that oral argument on the defendant's suppression motions and discovery motions be rescheduled for Wednesday, February 12, 2020, at 10:00 a.m., which we understand may be a convenient time for the Court.

The parties further request that a conference be scheduled for Thursday, January 30, 2020, at 3:00 p.m., which we also understand may be convenient for the Court.<sup>1</sup>

Application granted.

Respectfully submitted,

SO ORDERED:

GEOFFREY S. BERMAN
United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York

WILLIAM H. PAULEY III
U.S.D.J.

<sup>1</sup> The defense has informed the Government that it consents to the exclusion of time, under the Speedy Trial Act, until February 12, 2020. Of course, the defense's filing of motions on October 31, 2019 triggered an automatic exclusion of time, under 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(1)(D), which exclusion remains ongoing due to the defense's pending motions.
